

Virginia's Insurance Marketplace for Federally Recognized Tribes

Introducing the Commonwealth's official platform to shop, compare, and buy comprehensive health insurance plans for you and your family. The Marketplace is the only place where citizens of federally recognized tribes can find savings for health and dental plans.

Citizens of federally recognized tribes:

- Can enroll in a Virginia's Insurance Marketplace plan at any time and switch plans as often as once a month.
- May qualify for savings or no cost plans based on income and household size.
- Will continue to get free services at Indian Health Care Providers.

The Marketplace offers free, local assistance to help you sign up for a plan.

Why use Virginia's Insurance Marketplace?

- Marketplace plans help pay for care outside of Indian Health Providers, such as:
 - Hospital stays
 - Referrals to specialists
- Covers all 10 Essential Health Benefits
 - Wellness and emergency care
 - Medications
 - Mental health and substance use disorder care
 - Physical therapy
 - And more!

Questions? Contact us at 888-687-1501.

Visit the Marketplace website to learn more about the insurance offerings available to you or find free application and enrollment help.

Marketplace.Virginia.gov